

RULERS OF LAST YEAR'S annual spring picnic were Don Paul Cleary and Dona Jean May. Who will rule over the proceedings this year?

Creation of Citywide Interest In Victory Contest Expected

Launching of the Victory picnic bond selling program was effected at noon today as sales of war bonds and stamps officially began. The contest closes Tuesday noon, May 25.

Piloteer's service club will sell stamps from a booth which will be erected this afternoon in College hall, it was announced. Fifty cents in stamps will be counted as one vote and ballots will be provided so that buyers may vote for their candidate.

Distribution of ballots at downtown banks and business establishments forecast a greater number of bond and stamp sales than was at first anticipated. Greater interest in the Don and Dona contest will also be stimulated in this manner.

Tentative plans call for a "thermometer" chart to be posted on the bulletin board in College hall to record the daily progress of each candidate in relation to the number of bonds and stamps sold.

Expel Curl From Fullerton Jaysee

Student controversy centering around the scholastic status of Don Curl, Associated Student president at Fullerton jaysee, was closed today with the announcement that Curl has been expelled by order of the Fullerton board of education. The student leader was alleged to have released a news story to newspapers in which he criticized Director Samuel H. Cortez.

Announcement of Curl's plight recalled the fact here that he was one of the leaders last fall in the fight against Santa Ana concerning the right of the Yellowjackets to charge 85 cents for admission to the Thanksgiving football game. That issue was later settled in favor of Santa Ana by administrators of the Eastern conference. News of the resignation of Dr. Cortez to join the Navy also came from Fullerton yesterday.

Arrange Assembly For Next Tuesday

Plans have been completed today by the student executive board for a special assembly to be held next Tuesday in Willard auditorium.

An orchestra will be the feature attraction of the program, according to Herbert Scott, president of the board. Don and Dona candidates will be introduced along with students vying for student offices, Scott said.

The assembly will serve to launch the ten day bond and stamp selling contest which begins this noon. A short talk will be made by a student speaker. Results of the drive will be announced at the Victory picnic May 26.

Twenty Students Write For Post

Twenty student contributors to Tavern Post were listed today by Editor Clifford Hale as having material acceptable for publication in the semi-annual literary magazine.

Improvement in writing style and variety of composition will be the feature of this semester's issue, according to Hale. The superior quality of the Post can be attributed in part to the efforts of the creative writing class which was established this semester, Hale revealed.

Contributors whose material has been accepted are Barney Langton, Gus Luzania, Lloyd Thomas, Elaine Howard, Mary Elsner, Pat Patterson, John Montanus, Connie Rounselle, Betty Rothenberger, Milt Smith, Clifford Hale, Mason Teter, Betty McMillen, Ed Scott, Elaine Dollard, Lucille Mendenhall, Wayne Andrade, Helen Butler, Pat Collins, and Shirley Wright.

Seven Student Nominees To Contest For Associated Student Positions

Petitions are on file with the student executive board today for seven candidates who will vie for Associated Student offices in the primary election which will be held Wednesday morning, May 19.

Instead of the usual booths which are each semester set up in College hall to serve as voting places, members of the executive board will go around to the various classes and distribute the ballots to students.

In this manner, more students are expected to vote and it will be easier on the students themselves. Ballots will be distributed at 10 o'clock classes. No votes may be cast after 11 o'clock the same morning.

Students running for office are Barbara Matson and Bob Jones, president; Mary Eklund and Norma Higgins, vice-president; and Barbara Nelson, Gloria Miodek, and Shirley Wright, secretary-treasurer.

Retiring president is Herbert Scott, who moved up from vice-president to that position following the departure of Eugene Murphy into the Army. Retiring secretary-treasurer is Jeanne Turner.

ALAN A. REVILL will direct the semi-annual Sigma Phi Sigma concert one week from tonight.

Five Students Vie In Victory Race

The Junior college Victory picnic bond selling campaign began at noon today as five contestants for Don and Dona began their race which will last until Tuesday noon, May 25.

Instead of having a Don and Dona elected by popular vote as has been the procedure in former years, campus organizations are campaigning for their candidates by selling war bonds and stamps as votes. Fifty cents in stamps is equal to one vote.

Running for Don are Chuck Dennison and Keith Davis. Dona contestants are Barney Langton, Jeanne Turner, and Barbara Matson. Winners of the contest will rule over the Victory picnic May 26.

Plans For Del Ano Told By Adviser

Detailed plans for Del Ano were revealed today by Adviser Frances Egge who announced that the book will be approximately the same size as in years before.

A new type of binding is being used this year, she said, which will add convenience to style as the book will open flatly.

Miss Egge stated that orders will still be taken for yearbooks in the college office if they are placed immediately.

Del Ano will be ready to go to press very shortly and sophomores who have not yet had their pictures taken should do so at once, Miss Egge said.

Jaysee's Second Wartime Graduation Preparations Nearing Completion

Jaysee's second wartime graduation is being planned today by Director John H. McCoy who announced that Dr. Albert E. Kelly, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday, June 13. The services will be held at the First Presbyterian church at 4 p. m.

Dr. Elam J. Anderson, president of the University of Redlands, has been secured as the commencement speaker. Graduation exercises will be held in Willard auditorium at four p. m. Wednesday, June 16.

Shortening of the college year has been effected by moving graduation exercises up one week.

Women members of Las Gitanas service club have accepted an invitation to decorate for the exercises. Special music for both occasions is being prepared by the women's chorus.

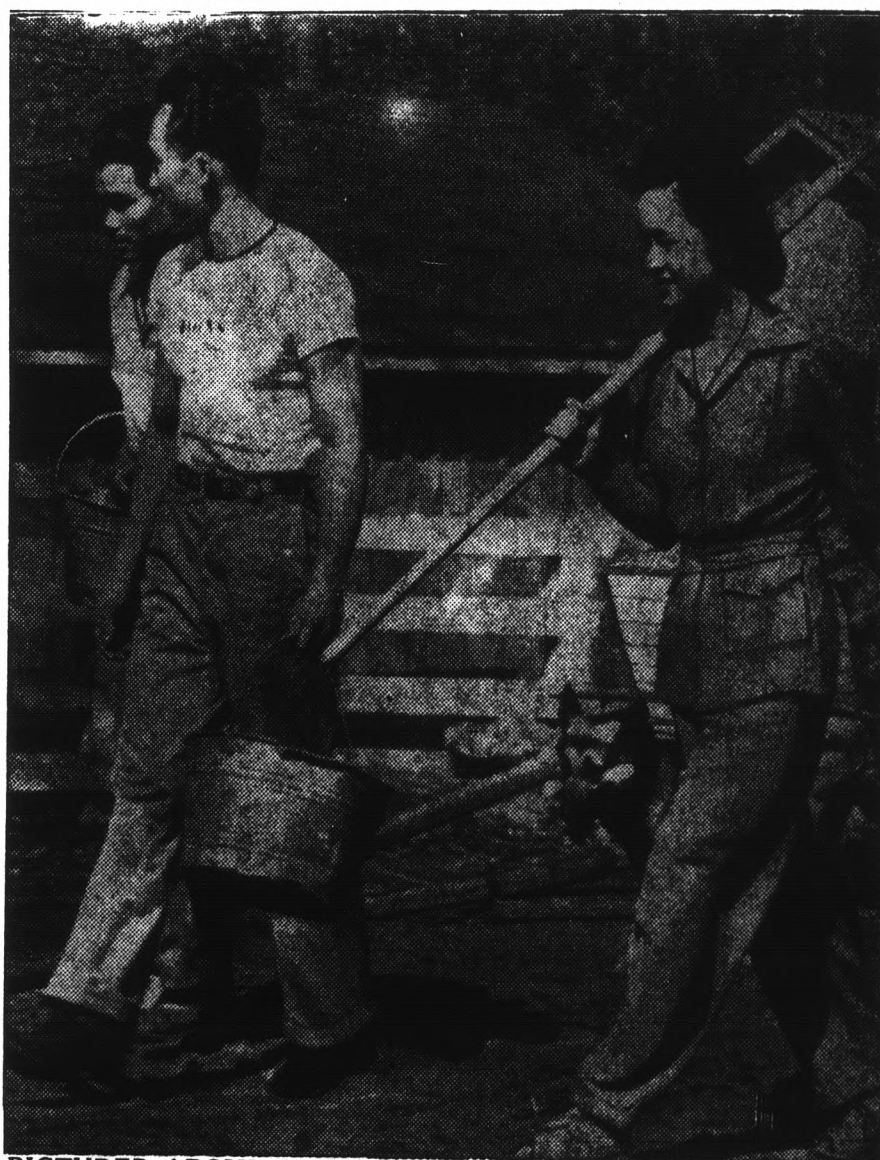

Tentative plans call for graduation of 88 sophomores next month.

Food Charts Shown In Library Display

For the purpose of enabling the students to obtain the greatest value and nourishment from food, the Department of Agriculture has issued a series of ten food charts, which may be studied in the library reading room. Librarian Lillian Dickson, announced today.

To correspond with these posters the library also has on display a complete and modern collection of recipe books, giving accurate illustrations and instructions for the preparation of all foods.

Miss Dickson also added that in the display case may be found a picturesque map, entitled "Pageant of the Pacific" by Miguel Covarrubais. This map gives examples of all foods grown in countries bordering on the Pacific ocean.

PICTURED ABOVE ARE Roy and Fred Kobayashi and Fred's wife, Barbara. Both men formerly attended Santa Ana jaysee where they were athletically prominent. They are working on farms on the east coast to help produce food during the war crisis. Note the word "Dons" on Fred's sweat shirt.

EDITORIALS

● We Want News!

When you work on a newspaper, you meet all kinds of people. You meet the ones that lean over backward in an effort to give you news. You meet the kind that call you up every week and tell you what they know. These are the kind of people that everyone likes—especially reporters.

But, sadly enough, there is another type of individual, too. This is the person who favors the "hush-hush" policy for no apparent reason and applies censorship to news sources through influential means. Such a policy is to be scorned and decried. Only justification of such a procedure is when the news is contrary to the best interests of the college or libelous in content. Suppression of such news is superfluous, for El Don would not print it anyway.

There is news being pigeonholed, however, that is not against college interests and not libelous. It is news that students want to see in the newspaper, for it affects them. Instructorial muzzling of the sources of this information has caused no little amount of ill will and hard feeling.

If there grows a poisonous plant which you want no one to touch, the best thing to do is not cut off people's hands, but destroy the plant. Never strike at an innocent victim, but at the root of the evil. This analogous example, in much milder form, of course, also applies here.

El Don does not want to pick a fight with anyone. We merely want facts freely and uncensored. If the news is detrimental to the best interests of the jaysee, it will never see print. If the news is libelous or distorted, it will be cut or deleted altogether.

If the news is of interest to students in the applied form, it will be printed.—Met.

● Army or Navy?

To argue as to whether the Army, Navy, or Marines is the best branch of the service would be like contesting which religions or politics are best. Like all such discussions concerning such topics they end usually in ribaldry.

When it comes to the administration of college enlisted reserve programs there is evidence to prove a dividing line in regard to clear-cut, well engineered, and fair plans of mustering college men.

The edge for better administration will go to the Navy. Proof is in the compared facts:

Engineers in the Army Enlisted Reserve corps were called at the same time as those studying liberal arts. Engineers in the Navy V-1 and V-7 will be allowed to complete their studies. They will be allowed approximately six quarters to finish their work.

Members of the ERC are going through the regular channels of the draft, may be lost in the shuffle, and their ERC status may disappear in the smoke of confusion. Those in the Navy will attend colleges and universities under the Navy College Training program. They will have studies in line with their major before being called as well as those designated by the Navy.

The ERC offered no options to those who had only a quarter to finish unless they were in advanced ROTC. The Navy offered one "term" to those who needed it to complete their major.

The Navy is calling its college men with an eye toward officer material in the making. The Army, true to its slogan, "Needs Men."

Navy men who are called and who attend the accredited college program will continue a nearly normal college life, with an opportunity to join a fraternity and engage in athletics. Of course men in the ERC too, will have a chance for all social life in Fort Bragg, Fort Sill or where ever they go. They can "go to town" on week-end leaves.

● Not Skelton-Skeleton!

Jaysee has a skeleton, and it isn't kept in a family closet. Used by the life science classes, the skeleton is on view in the zoology class where it has been the property of the college since 1932.

If the object were ever dropped it would take quite awhile to put it back together again as it has a total of 206 different bones in the body.

One of the most unusual properties of a skeleton, Anatomy Instructor Harry Cornsweet explained, is that its exact age can be determined by the hardness of certain bones.

Skeletons for class study are extremely difficult to procure at this time. Most skeletons are shipped from the Orient, Europe, and from prisons, Mr. Cornsweet revealed.

The anatomy class studies the skeleton in detail. It takes three or four weeks for the class to familiarize itself with the different bones.

The skeleton determines one's size and height. Without it one would be a shapeless mass. It holds the body upright and gives facial prominence. It is also necessary for locomotion, Mr. Cornsweet said.

Capital To Campus

By Jay Richter, ACP Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(ACP)—Attention of tomorrow's career women is hereby directed today's No. 1 Womanpower shortage—nursing.

Public health officials in Washington are gravely concerned about this shortage. Fighting and working America must be kept well. It takes good nursing to do it.

Unless the nation's nurse power is reinforced by enrollment of 65,000 students in nursing schools this year, America faces a real threat of great suffering and loss of life through epidemics, disaster, accidents or enemy action.

The statistics which picture this shortage are astounding, especially for industrial boom towns near war plants. Thousands of nurses are in demand in such spots—yet hospitals are frequently non-existent. Sometimes even doctors are not available.

The average number of patients under treatment in hospitals at any one time has increased 8 per cent over 1941 and is mounting steadily. Thousands of nursing vacancies now exist in government and civilian institutions.

The result is tremendous pressure on available nurses . . . an average of 2.54 patients per nurse every 24 hours including all administrators, supervisors, instructors, staff nurses and student nurses . . . 10 patients per nurse in tuberculosis hospitals . . . 75 patients per nurse in mental hospitals.

The shortage is aggravated by entrance of about 33,000 nurses into the Army and Navy nurse corps, which still require 3,000 more each month.

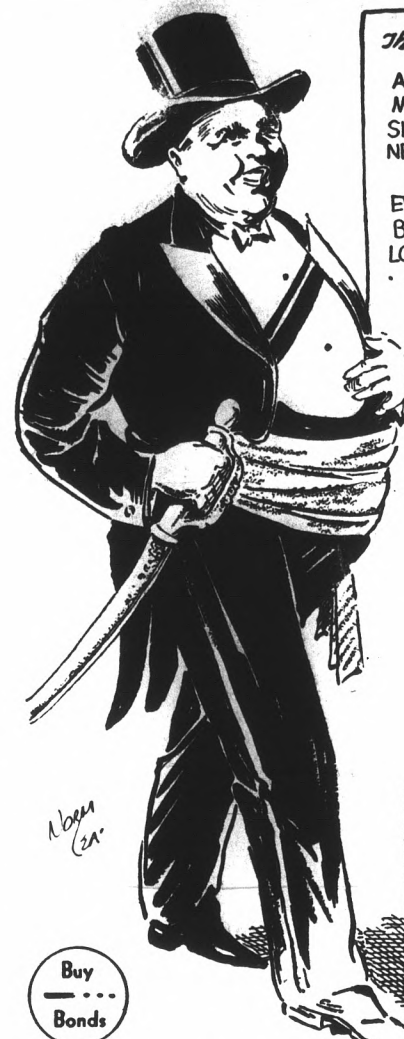

More and more nurses—65,000 more this year—is the only hope of thousands of sick and injured. That's a wartime challenge to women to plan their lives so that others may live.

News of college students' fervid devotion to freedom continues to filter through from the European underground. One of the most recent reports received in Washington tells of more executions of University of Munich students accused of distributing leaflets calling Adolf Hitler a murderer.

Among students who paid with their lives for speaking out against Hitler were a medical student, Hans Scholl, his sister Sophia, and another medical student named Christoph Froh.

The students showed great courage during the court proceedings. When Hans Scholl was sentenced to death, he called to his judges: "Soon you will stand where I am standing now."

After the executions, the words "You won anyhow" were painted in large letters on the university walls.

● Womanpower and War

Five army officers were flying against unsurmountable odds under stormy skies in the midwest one night last winter. Ice was forming fast on the plane's wings. The men knew they couldn't get the plane through. They knew they were faced with two alternatives—crash or "hit the silk."

Five men were relying completely now on five parachutes. Would the 'chutes work? The 'chutes did, and all five men are alive today to continue their work for Uncle Sam—one of the few times on record that an entire crew got out safely from a disabled craft. Here was a dramatic story of escape for a group of men. Behind it was an undramatic but just as important story of service on the part of a group of women, students at Weber college, Ogden, Utah, who had packed those parachutes to save those five lives.

Instructed by a woman, Mrs. Lucille Dowyear, they had learned parachute packing and rigging at nearby Hill field. They had learned one way to "keep 'em flying." They had shown one phase of womanpower in the junior college war effort.—(From the Junior College Journal).

● 'Oldest Daily' Folds

Effect of war on the college newspaper was felt today with the announcement that the Yale News, the undergraduate publication at the New Haven (Conn.) institution which calls itself "the oldest college daily," has gone to press for the last time for the duration.

Financial and manpower problems were given as the reasons for discontinuing the daily.

● Our Secret Weapon

Because of the excellence of the ideas presented, El Don reprints here excerpts from a bulletin issued by the Committee on Public Morale in Los Angeles county. Morale, the secret weapon that will win the war.

Congress can't vote it. Dollars won't buy it. It's your job to build it.

Put unity into our community. Unity starts with U. To win the war, stop private wars at home, on the job, with the neighbors. Honest apology ends friction, starts teamwork. If we pull together, we'll pull through.

Be a rumor-stopper. Rumors help the enemy. Trace the facts. Face the Facts. Don't exaggerate. Make our community gossip-proof. Every patriot shoots a rumor dead on sight.

Have U Heard The One About

The man who wanted a Packard real bad but he didn't have one, so he axed the man who owned one. (I made that one up myself.—Ed.)

The boners students pull at exam time; which, incidentally, is just around the corner. Here are a few:

"They gave William IV a lovely funeral. It took six men to carry the beer."

"When lit up I enjoyed looking down on the cities of the valley."

A friend of ours out on the campus the other day remarked that the night before he had been in the arms of Morphine.

"You mean Morpheus," corrected a grammarian martinet. "Morphine is a dope!"

Our friend stiffened. "Yeh? Well so is your girl friend!"

Meninas Hold Annual Formal Dance Tonight at Ebell

Officers Installed At YWCA Banquet

Cabinet officers for the fall college term were announced at the annual YWCA Mother-Daughter banquet held Wednesday, May 12, at the China House.

Miss Mildred Day, retiring president of the organization, presided at the affair. She installed the new president, Patricia Patterson, with the traditional ceremony. New officers are Miss Patterson, president; Barbara Cox, vice-president, and Bernita Horton, secretary-treasurer. Out-going cabinet members are Miss Day, Anne Glidden, vice-president, and Dorothy Weiss, secretary-treasurer. Advisers for the group are Mrs. Gail Smith and Mrs. Jennie Tessmann.

Mrs. Smith announced that Mary Henderson would be in charge of the bookstore next year, replacing Anne Glidden, who is to graduate in June.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Hiram Currey, newly elected member of the board of education. Her topic was the significance of Mother's Day and what the mothers of famous women meant to them in their work.

According to Mrs. Smith, this YWCA banquet was the first one in 17 years missed by Mrs. Tessmann, who was unable to attend this year's banquet.

Committees for the affair were: Dorothy Weiss, arrangements; Virginia Ebert, program; Mildred Day, installation; Anne Glidden and Barbara Brisco, reception; Mary Henderson, Bernita Horton, and Marie Farnsworth, favors.

A chow mein dinner was served to the group in the China House's private diningroom. The affair began at 6:30 and was concluded at 8:30 o'clock.

French Club Holds Atmospheric Luncheon

A typically French luncheon was held this noon by members of the French club, Miss Lella Watson, adviser, said today.

Planned by Miss Watson's second semester French students, the luncheon was held in B1, which was decorated for the occasion with two French flags.

Herbert Baird, president, gave a resume of war news in French, and Jack Phillips read in French President Roosevelt's recent message to the French people.

The affair was attended by 30 members of the club. Le Mar-saillais was sung.

Committees were luncheon, Jean Nehrhood and Marilyn Murray; tables and decorations, Bette Bickford and Barbara Matson; invitations, Henrietta Grisot and Rosamond Clark. Members of the French D class planned the program, and French C students had charge of cleaning up.

Base Officers To Be Guests

Las Meninas are holding their annual Formal Dance tonight at the Ebell clubhouse, Miss Dorothy Decker said today. Time is 8:30.

Guests for the occasion are officers from the Naval air base and the Marine air base. Patron and patronesses are Director and Mrs. John H. McCoy, Miss Maxine Knight, and Miss Decker. Miss Genevieve Humiston and Miss Decker are the advisers for the social club.

A section of the Ebell club is furnishing refreshments for the affair. Approximately 25 couples are expected to attend the dance.

The sea is to be the theme, with the decorations carrying out the idea. General chairman is Betty Banks. Committees are tables, Betty Platt; decorations, Barbara Matson; dance, Mary Ann Andrews, and in charge of securing orchestra, Irma Youel.

Club To Sell Bonds In Projected Campaign

According to Jeanne Clark, president of the Piloteers service club, Director John H. McCoy today appointed the group official saleswomen of war bonds and stamps during the war bond campaign. A booth for this purpose is to be placed in the college hall. The Piloteers have been in charge of war stamps sales during this college year.

A beach party is to be held tomorrow at Newport-Balboa by the organization, Miss Clark said.

The Mother-Daughter-Faculty Tea was held Sunday, May 2, at Eugenia Bond's home.

The group held their formal party for Marines at the Ebell clubhouse on April 12.

Their formal candlelight initiation took place March 29 at a local church. The informal initiation was held at the home of Barbara Cox in Lemon Heights on March 29. Advisers are Mrs. Grace Knipe and Miss Maxine Knight.

Miss Patricia Jones has been appointed to replace Mrs. Torrey as attendance secretary on the college office staff. Mrs. Torrey resigned to accompany her husband who has been transferred from the local air base.

Former Movie Writer Speaks At Literary Open House Meeting

Opening a Tavern Tattler meeting to the general public for the first time this year, the literary group presented Captain Richard Macaulay, former movie writer, as the guest speaker of the evening at their monthly meeting, Tuesday, May 4. The meeting was held in the junior college library.

A short business meeting was held before the speaker was introduced to the large gathering. President Wayne Andrade presided over the meeting. Tavern Tattler members voted to send copies of "First the Blade," Southern California student poetry anthology, to Captain T. H. Glenn, former English instructor and now a member of the Army signal corps, and to Pvt. William Smith, a former student who recently entered the Army. Smith's poem "Why Is It?" is printed in "First the Blade." This poem was first printed in the March, 1943, edition of the Tavern Post, a publication edited by the Tavern Tattlers.

Original poems were read by Rebecca Archer, Dorothy Winterbourne, Ethel Schoneman, and Wayne Andrade. These were read in order to fulfill the requirement of membership in the group which is to read poetry or prose, preferably original material, to the assembled members of the club. It was announced by Shirley Wright, associate editor of the Tavern Post, that the material for the forthcoming issue is now at the printer's.

Captain Macaulay, writer of many movie pictures, one of which was "Hello, Frisco, Hello," urged the writers present to write for magazines or to write books instead of trying immediately to get into the movie writing field. He said that it was important for a writer to build up his prestige and to gain proof of his writing ability before he is signed by a studio. He also spoke on the subject of censorship.

After the meeting, a reception was held in the women's lounge. In charge of refreshments was Shirley Wright. Served were punch and cookies. The affair began at 7:30 and was concluded at 9 o'clock.

Las Gitanas See Play, Have Spanish Dinner

Las Gitanas, social club, had dinner at La Fonda, a local Spanish cafe, last Friday, Miss Muriel Anderson, adviser, said today. After the dinner, the organization saw the play "Arsenic and Old Lace" at the Ebell clubhouse.

The club held a joint meeting with Los Gauchos Monday evening, at the local high school Hut. The men supplied the music, while the women supplied the refreshments.

Las Gitanas are now working on USO scrapbooks. They also have charge of decorations for graduation, Miss Anderson said.

WAA Members Begin After School Indoor Baseball and Tennis

Last week was the beginning of the indoor baseball and tennis activities in the WAA's after school sports program and both received very promising turnouts. The indoor baseball team practiced in the basketball court space behind the gymnasium their first day, for lack of a better place, and used their time very profitably with pitching, batting, and practice on grounders, flies, and base "pegs".

Because of their lack of practice, some of the girls received slight injuries of sprained fingers, and bruised shins. Last Tuesday, May 11, the members drove to the Lincoln grammar school in cars, where they could do more extensive practicing. After they had warmed up by pitching, catching, and throwing the ball around the bases, they spent the rest of their allotted time hitting flies. Some of the grammar school children joined in the game,"—and had a wonderful time," Miss Knight said. Those going out for the team are: Alice Thornborrow, Barbara Cox, Marie Farnsworth, Kathryn King, Betty and Claire McMillen, Marjorie Compton, Louella Ynigues, and Henrietta Grisett.

Tennis Underway

The tennis team, which consists of Barbara Cox, Kathryn King, Alice Thornborrow, Claire McMillen, Marjorie Compton, and Marie Farnsworth is well underway and the members are playing games among themselves at present. Before the season is over they are hoping to have some tournaments with other schools.

Miss Knight Forms New Tennis Ladder

Miss Knight's tennis class has formed a tennis ladder to see who are outstanding players of the class. At present it is for doubles players only, and only one run off has been made so far. The scores run as follows:

Edna Requarth and Betty Baldwin, bye.

Mary An Andrews and Marjorie Babcock took Virginia Ebert and Alice Webb in a close match of 5-3. This match was not completed because of lack of time. Mildred Day and Louise Haven smashed Elaine Howard and Ruth Murphy in a rousing 6-2 match.

The ladder is arranged so that the lowest players may challenge either of the two higher teams on the ladder in order to bring themselves.

"In two weeks" Miss Maxine Knight announced today, "we are going to have a singles Round Robin tournament so that each member in the class will have a chance to play every other member."

These tournaments will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays and as there are only eleven members in the class Miss Knight feels certain that everyone will get a chance to play.

Basking Beach Party Enjoyed

Saturday, May 8 was the day of the first WAA "basking" beach party held at Balboa. Because of the recent seniors Infantile Paralysis epidemic, which has struck our community, the WAA members decided to refrain from any swimming, but spent the day basking in the sun shine, touring the fun zone, where they threw balls at milk bottles and rode the Merry-Go-Round, and went window shopping.

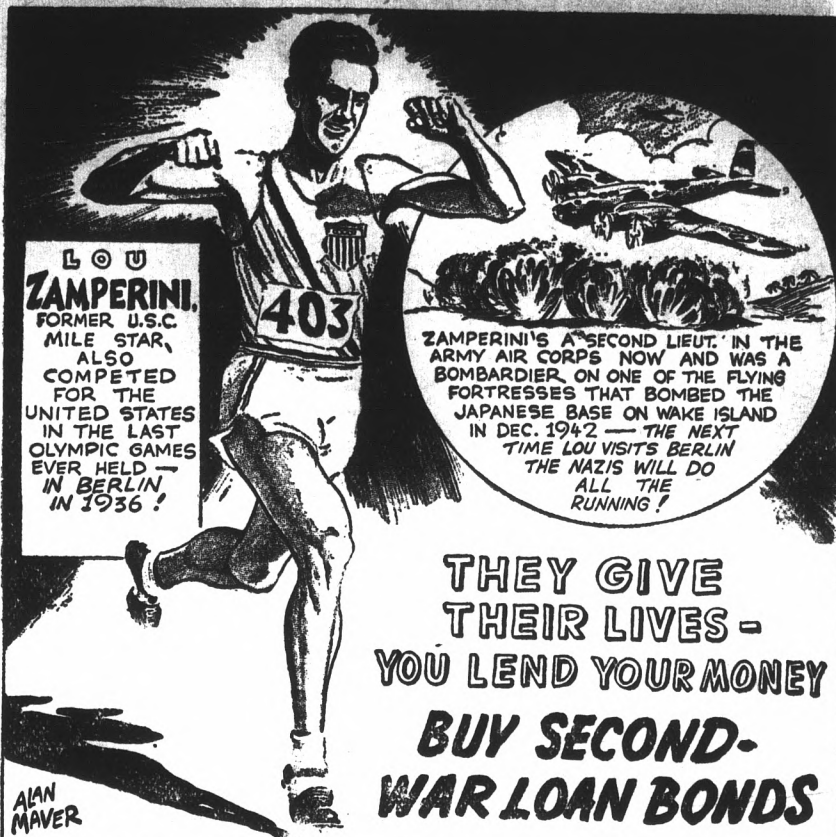

The nine women attending left Santa Ana on the 9:40 bus for Newport, and then proceeded by foot, along the bay front to a spot midway between Balboa proper and the white bridge. Each girl brought her own nose-bag lunch which she ate on the sand while getting a good "tan."

Afternoon Shopping Tour

In the afternoon they took walking shopping tours through all of Balboa's better sports shops looking for new and dashing summer beach apparel. They also patronized the soda fountains, because of the warm weather. Some of the women took side jaunts along the beach until time for the 3:20 bus for home.

Girls Ride Through Base

On the way home the bus stopped at the Santa Ana Army Air Base to pick up passengers and the girls were thrilled by a ride through the base grounds. Those attending were Muriel Verdugo, and Bonnie (Ethel) Schoneman, co-student directors of the outing, Miss Maxine Knight, adviser, Claire and Betty McMillen, Virginia Ebert, Joyce Moulton, Shirley Wright, and Louise Haven.
